

Guide for Party Planning Purposes Only

Open Bar: An Open Bar is defined as when the renter pays by the hour a per person rate for full service; pricing which includes all of the basic brands noted below and an advance notice on the specialty drinks along with mixers. Cost $18.00 per person over 21 years of age for the first 2 hours, $8.00 per person for the third hour, and $4.00 per person for each additional hour. VFW provides inventory and bar tenders with a minimum of five hours. The Post will do its best to accommodate the different types of call drinks such as scotch and soda, martini's and manhattans, and is extremely limited to exotic drinks. We can not guarantee that bar tenders will be able to create all the types of drinks found in Mr. Boston's Bar Tender guide: .

Champagne and other brands

Specialty Champagne can be provided with consultation with the Canteen Manager, as well as Non-Alcoholic beer such as O'Doul's or Busch. Specialty beers such as ST Pauli or Corona can also be ordered in advance.

A Hosted Bar is defined as when the renter is charged in advance for drinks on a consumption basis and a running total is kept during the event using the cash register. A deposit in advance of equal to half of the Open Bar hourly rate is required. Process provided by the bartenders will be to allow the guest to have open bar drinks with a running total being kept. Should actual consumption based on a cash bar rates exceed the deposit the renter will be advised. The renter can then pay an additional deposit or switch the event over to a cash bar basis. Fees for bartenders will be the same as a Cash Bar or $25 per hour with a 4-hour minimum. If during the event the amount consumed is less than the initial or subsequent deposit a refund shall be issued within ten business days of the event.

A Cash Bar is defined when the guest at the event purchases drinks on his or her own. Renter shall be responsible for payment of bartenders at the going rate.
